

YOUNG WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD 2022 APPLICATION FORM

WINLPG has opened YOUNG WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD 2022. To enter they must be female and 35 years or younger on 31st December of the Application Year, currently employed within the LPG Industry (any sector) and have a minimum of three years' employment. They should also be someone who has shown significant contribution or commitment, or expertise or character within the business. This person will epitomise the values of WINLPG.

Please complete this form and return it to Nikki Brown, WINLPG Community Manager at winlpg@wlpga.org, alternatively visit www.wlpga.org and download the form. The deadline to receive completed forms is 30th September 2022. Nominations can either be a person or a company nominating a candidate, or an individual nominating themselves.

Applicant's Name
Business Title
Organisation Name and City/Country
Email

Briefly describe your current position and responsibilities (max 200 words)

Describe why you chose the LPG Industry and the path to your current position ? (Max 300 words)

What have you done professionally within the business or the industry to make you a strong candidate for this award ? (Max 100 words)

What do you believe is your best leadership strength? Explain how this has supported you within your current role ? (Max 100 words)

With 1 being the least important, mark out of 10 the following characteristics of a successful female leader

- a. a. Honesty and Integrity ()
- b. b. Having a Clear Vision ()
- c. c. Taking Personal Responsibility ()
- d. d. Awareness of behaviours and Impact ()
- e. e. Being Inspirational ()
- f. f. Emotional Intelligence ()
- g. g. Authenticity ()

What is your current vision for your career development for the next 5 years ? (Max 200 words)

Explain how you would be a good ambassador for the WINLPG Network and the promotion of Gender Diversity within the Industry ?

All nominations will be considered by an Awards Panel, the winner will be announced during LPG Week, in New Delhi, in November 2021.

Thank you!